About Big Rosa.

Rosedale, N. M., June 10, 1902.

EDITOR CHIEFTAIN:

Rosedale is quiet at present.
Big Rosa, 2½ miles to the northwest, shows great and rapidly increasing activity. Fully $5,- 000 worth of work is now under way and other contracts are being let. The immediate cause of this work was the discovery and partial development of the Baking Powder property of the Edwards Bros. et al of El Paso, Tex. This claim showed well from the surface but now at a depth of 55 feet it is exciting old time prospectors and tenderfeet alike by yielding a strong vein of high grade ore while picked samples show as high as 84 oz in gold. Two or more stamp mills, stores, drink emporiums, a post office, dozens of cabins and tents, a good graded road up Big Rosa and a couple of hundred men tearing into its mountain sides may be a vision, but as a miner and prospector of long experience I think this and more will be a reality within 12 months.
Big Rosa may not be as good a mining camp as Cripple Creek, Colo. It may be better. The writer has no interest there and is not puffing the camp to "induce capital," but is sincere in saying that right now is a suitable and very favorable time to investigate Big Rosa.

There can be no harm in keeping ones eye on the indicator.

A musician, driven to despair by the atrocious playing of a lady in the apartments over his own, met her in the hall one day, says an exchange, with her little girl, and said pleasantly: "This little one plays quite creditably for her age. I hear her practicing every George Schaub, a well known German citizen of New Lebanon, Ohio, is a constant reader of the Dayton Volkszeitung. He knows that this paper aims to advertise only the best in its columns, and when he saw Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised therein for lame back, he did not hesitate in buying a bottle of it for his wife, who for eight weeks had suffered with the most terrible pains in her back and could get no relief.

He says: "After using the Pain Balm for a few days my wife said to me, 'I feel as though born anew,' and before using the entire contents of the bottle the unbearable pains had entirely vanished and she could again take up her household duties." He is very thankful and hopes that all suffering likewise will hear of her wonderful recovery.

A friend met Senator Mason in Washington and asked him what he was doing. "Why, I am in congress now," replied Mr. Mason, "trying to make a living in an honest way." "Well, you shouldn't have much trouble," replied his friend. "For I do not think you will encounter the slightest competition."
