

A STRANGE MARRIAGE.

Chapman 1/20/97
Miss Lizzie Weaver United for Life
With James Brooks at County Jail.

The Grant county jail was the scene of a strange marriage ceremony Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, at which time Miss Lizzie Weaver was united in marriage to James Brooks, who is now under indictment and awaiting trial for the murder of School Teacher Simmons at Cook's Peak some time since.

The bride is nothing more than a child being about 15 years of age, if that, but secured the consent of her mother, who was present and very reluctantly gave the necessary assurance to Justice of the peace Issac Given, who performed the ceremony.—Silver City Independent.
